LEGAL AID

Maryland Legal Aid: Who We Are

Maryland Legal Aid is a private, non-profit law firm that provides free civil legal services to Maryland's most vulnerable residents and communities and is dedicated to protecting and advancing human rights for all.

About the Joining Forces Project

Maryland Legal Aid's Joining Forces Project is a free, statewide legal telephone hotline specifically for low-income individuals who have served in any branch of the military.

Callers receive direct and immediate access to legal assistance and brief advice on a wide range of civil legal issues.

Have you served in the military?

If you are financially eligible for the hotline services and have served in the military, regardless of your military discharge status, you can call the veterans' hotline at (443) 863-4040 for help with your civil legal issues.

Types of civil legal assistance provided

The veterans' hotline will provide assistance with a number of civil legal issues, including, but not limited to:

Consumer Rights

- Bankruptcy
- Debt Collection
- Foreclosure
- Wage Garnishment

Family Law

- Child Support
- Custody and Visitation
- Divorce
- Domestic Violence

Government Benefits

- SNAP (Food Stamps)
- SSI & SSDI
- Temporary Cash Assistance
- Unemployment

Housing

- Breach of Lease
- Evictions
- Foreclosure
- Landlord/Tenant issues

Veterans' Benefits*

- Disability
- Education
- Pensions
- Upgrades and Discharges

If you need more extensive legal representation beyond what is available by telephone, you may be referred to a volunteer attorney who may be able to provide further guidance and assistance.

Maryland Legal Aid does not handle criminal matters.

*Only an advocate certified by the Veterans' Administration (VA) can represent an individual in a Veterans' Benefits appeal. Callers to the hotline seeking assistance with Veterans' Benefits matters may be referred to or placed with a VA-certified attorney.
