

Overview

Maryland Legal Aid's Ryan White Project provides free civil legal services that are critical for people living with HIV/AIDS who reside in Baltimore City and Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Carroll, Harford, Howard, and Queen Anne's counties.

Legal assistance provided by Maryland Legal Aid is designed to address the health-harming legal needs of people living with HIV/AIDS, and to enable them to focus on one of their primary concerns, free of discrimination—fighting the effects of HIV/AIDS and staying well.

Proof of residency, income*, and HIV status are required to open a case.

Assistance provided by Maryland Legal Aid is an essential component of a holistic and comprehensive continuum of care for each client.

* To meet eligibility requirements, individuals must have incomes at or below 300% of the federal poverty level.

Services

Access to legal services, in combination with medical care and case management assistance, is crucial to the well-being of people living with HIV/AIDS.

Obtaining public benefits may be necessary for either you, or individuals who may depend on you, to maintain a basic standard of living and self-sufficiency.

Consumer debt consultations will help you understand your rights and options under Maryland debtor-creditor law and federal bankruptcy law and deal with aggressive debt collection efforts pursuant to fair debt collection laws.

If you are discriminated against or treated differently in the housing, employment, or service arenas based on your HIV/AIDS status or "perceived disability," it may be a violation of state or federal law.
